FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Memorial Car Show Benefits Suicide Survivors

What: Car show and family fun event that will raise money for suicide survivors. About 75 cars are expected to participate. There will be jump houses, food trucks, raffle, crafts, silent auction and music.

When: Saturday, Sept. 20, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Where: First Baptist Church, 5001 NE Loop 820, Fort Worth

Why: The proceeds from the car show will go to the LOSS (Local Outreach to Suicide Survivors) Team of Tarrant County.

The LOSS team provides immediate support and resources to individuals and families who have lost a loved one to suicide. On average, it takes survivors 4.5 years to seek grief counseling. With the support of the LOSS team, that average is 39 days.

How: Register your car from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. There is a $15 registration fee. For more information, contact (817) 614-7598.
